03 July 2019
Term 2 Week 10

Due to Parent-Teacher-Student meetings starting at 2pm tomorrow you may collect your child(ren) from 1pm onwards if you are able to do so.

Otherwise you may collect your child from the hall between 2 and 3.

We ask that there be no noisy play after school tomorrow out of respect for the parents, teachers and pupils who will need quiet.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR UNDERSTANDING.

This was another massive success. I want to thank Maromaku staff for organizing such a successful day. Congratulations to all our students who participated. Finally, a very loud 'THANK YOU!' to our coaches. Your training sessions before the day and your advice and team management on the day were fantastic. The children learnt a great deal. We appreciate your support and commitment very much.

MAGIC MOMENTS

ROOM FOUR'S MUSINGS ON THE PROJECT ISLAND SONG TRIP.

We saw two wonderful, playful penguins bobbing around like kites on a stiff breeze.

Bailey Smith

The Explore boat seemed to fly through the glistening waters of the Bay of Islands. The little Toutouwai hopped around us, peering at the tempting grubs we were holding out to them as an offering - friend to friend.

Lola Jane Doidge

As the boat steamed for Urupukapuka, I felt the wind aggressively lashing past my face. The boat suddenly stopped and I heard a surprising noise of a duck! I looked up and saw the Captain with his phone and a jolly big grin enjoying his practical joke.

Russell Harris

On our journey out, there were two Blue Penguins, the size of tissue boxes, bobbing in the ocean, minding their own business. It was hilarious seeing them show no interest in us because we weren't fish they could eat.

Tane Latupeirissa

"10 o'clock! 10 o'clock!" I yelled with excitement because two adorable little Blue Penguins were floating on the teal surface of the calm ocean. The boat stopped immediately so the other students could share my experience...

Suddenly they slid down breaking the smooth water and disappearing into the deep.

Scarlett Halliday

My favourite moment was on our irresistible hike when I made friends with a beautiful Mahoe tree, wanting to chat before sharing its roots with the earth.

Ava Armstrong

The moist morning breeze blew gently around the island. Birds' songs caught our ears and korora swam around the glistening sea, showing off to their audience.

Henry Meldrum

A glimmering shiny snapper glided through the crystal water across the bow of the boat. The fish played hide and seek, laughing at our clumsiness.

Velyn Bristow

I spotted a Black-Backed Gull standing amazingly still on a small, isolated rock. "That's the first one today!" Ria said with joy in her voice.

Sakura Wattam

Listening for bird calls was really exciting and we spotted two gorgeous, little Saddle Backs that we fed Mealworms to. They were grateful.

Poppy Galley

The beautiful Blue Penguin majestically bobbed up and down like an oyster buoy being dropped into the glistening water.
