Descriptive Writing from Room 2

Kiwi.

My native bird is a Rainbow Lorikeet from the story How Kiwi Saved
the Forest.

It has rainbow wings.

It can fly.

I think Kiwis could fly.

by Dominik Holt

Kiwis can do lots of things.
My native bird is a Kiwi.
It has long whiskers and nostrils
at the end of their beak.
It can smell under the ground.
I think Kiwis are amazing.
by Taylor Crisp

Kiwi

My native bird is a Kiwi.

It has brown or
white feathers

It can run fast.

It can not fly but

it has tiny wings.

I think my Kiwi's
name could be

Isobel.

by Kenzie White

The Kiwi.
My native bird is the Kiwi.
It has tiny wings.
The Kiwi is nocturnal.
It can dig.
I think Kiwis are precious.

How Maui Slowed the Sun.
Maui said a charm to make the flax ropes magical.

Marley.

How Maui Slowed the Sun.

Maui and his four brothers made magic ropes out of flax. They threw the ropes around the sun.

Ara.

How Maui Slowed the Sun.

The sun was scary but brave Maui made magic ropes. They threw the magic ropes around the sun. The sun promised to go more slowly so the days were longer.

Owen.

How Maui Slowed the Sun.

Long ago Te Ra, the sun moved very fast across the sky. There was no time for people to do their work or for the kids to play. Maui and his brothers caught the sun and made it slow down.

Harper.
